

COLUMBIA

REHABILITATION AND REGENERATIVE MEDICINE

PROGRAMS IN OCCUPATIONAL THERAPY

2020 Dr. Janet Falk-Kessler Distinguished Lectureship

Free Virtual Conference

earn up to 3 contact hours

Friday, December 4, 2020

1:30-4:30pm EST

2020 JFK Distinguished Lecturer:

Danielle Butin, MS, OTR

"Innovating in Life's Uncertain Corners"

2020 JFK Lectureship Program

1:30 - 1:45 pm - Welcome Remarks

1:45 pm - 3:30 pm – Concurrent Breakout Oral Presentations

3:30 - 4:30 pm – JFK Distinguished Lecture

Danielle Butin, MS, OTR: 2020 JFK Lecturer

"Innovating in Life's Uncertain Corners"

Join Danielle on a reflective and courageous journey as she shares stories about launching the Afya Foundation, challenging the status quo, advocating for the underserved, and making a difference globally. Through the Afya Foundation, Danielle has built diverse communities of support to change the lives of those often unseen and disregarded. Her ability to lead and grow the Afya Foundation has been enhanced by using her OT expertise to build improved and innovative healthcare solutions for a global audience. Her work, a blend of global health and social justice, is deeply rooted in listening carefully to those in need, genuinely showing up with energy and resolve, and building creative and soulful solutions to complex problems. Honest and humorous in approach, this thought-provoking lecture will inspire the risk taking and courage needed to create cutting edge solutions to the most challenging of circumstances.

Oral Presentations

Sessions	Pediatrics	Rehabilitation	General Practice, Mental Health, Wellness	Functional Cognition Assessments
Session 1 1:45-2:30	PEDS 1: Looking ahead: How OT's can contribute to the design of our school systems' behavior management reform Anna Goldenberg; New York City Department of Education	REHAB 1: Impact of a short-term occupation-based program on improving pain, fatigue, and occupational performance in women with cancer living in the community Rochelle Mendonca and Colleen Maher; Columbia University and University of the Sciences in Philadelphia	GP 1: Occupational therapy's role in a community-based approach to substance-abuse prevention & mental-health promotion for youth Sean Getty; Stony Brook University	FUNCOG1: The Occupational Therapy Anticipatory Awareness Test: A functional cognitive assessment for adults with neurological conditions Danielle Mahoney, Lenin C. Grajo, and Glen Gillen; Iona College and Columbia University
Session 2 2:35-3:20	PEDS 2: Effectiveness of an occupational therapy reading program for low socioeconomic elementary students: A pilot randomized controlled study Mari Arnaud and Sharon Gutman; PS 197 and Columbia University	REHAB 2: Functional Upper Extremity Levels (FUEL): A classification tool for the neurological upper extremity Daniel Geller, Steve Van Lew, Nettie Capasso, Rachel Feld-Glazman, and Adrienne Dicembri; Columbia University, Burke Rehabilitation, and Rusk Rehabilitation	GP 2: Strength-based practice for autistic individuals by OT practitioners Kavitha Murthi, Yu-Lun Chen, Kristie Patten, and Stephen Mark Shore; New York University and Adelphi University	FUNCOG 2: Measuring the clinical competence of occupational therapists working with adults with neuromuscular diseases. Scott Rushanan, Dawn M. Nilsen, and Lenin C. Grajo; The University of Pennsylvania Health System and Columbia University

Columbia OT's Commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion

Registration for the 2020 Online JFK Lecture is FREE.

We welcome tax-deductible donations to a newly created OT Diversity Scholarship Fund that will benefit CU OT Students.

Register and make your donations by November 30th here:

<https://events.columbia.edu/go/JFK2020>

